Cancellation Policy

In order to prepare for the course and ensure sufficient participation, should 30 registrations not be received six weeks prior to the course date, the course will not be offered. If a course is cancelled for insufficient registrations, registration fees will be refunded.

Registration Withdrawal

A variety of circumstances could result in a registrant needing to withdraw from the course after having registered. In those cases, an administration fee will be deducted from the registration fee to offset expenses.

Withdrawal Administration Fee

Prior to the Registration Deadline $50

After the registration deadline and up to one week before the course date $100

Less than one week before the course date $150
